NOT THIS TIME (AND NEVER AGAIN)

it's a revolution mother!

out of the darkness
we will come running
out of the shadows
we will come screaming
up from the gutters
we will rise
never again will life take a life

What you gonna do when your perfect world turns to ashes
What you gonna do when everything you believe turns out to be a lie

the absence of noise does not mean silence the absence of war
does not mean peace
the absence of hate does not mean caring the absence of hope does not mean hopelessness

up from the gutters

up from the gutters

LESS THAN ALL IS NOTHING

I will not give into the darkness the darkness that covers my face the darkness that covers my eyes no way

I will live my life free from a hellish life of darkness and despair no fear no regrets I will not be kept down no blood on my hands foul cynics if you dare

I want to be a spike in the eye of the system
Rampaging through the blackened ruins
of their negativity

either we're all in baby or we're bust

Rage Rage Rage Rage

from a selfish life of darkness and despair
if I don't make it I'll still have no regrets

AS THE WORLD BURNS

time is not on your side trapped in crushing waves of change your world has turned to dust

choking on the ashes
your cocoon
is a tomb
your law

burn!
your world
burn!
burn!
burn!

is a tomb
your law

watch it burn

burn! burn! burn!

WITH NO TURNING BACK

when it all went down i did not see it coming giving faith in something undeserving giving all yet getting nothing but the ruination of a life of which there is no escape

betrayed
broken
beat down
my life
this will not stand

i will not walk that 13th step
i will not tie that 13th knot
straight ahead with who i am

you better believe it it's the way it's going to be and i was down but i came back and i don't need

permission to go on

MISANTHROPIC WORLD

with all the ways there are to die why do we embrace our own demise where the things we love the most are the very things killing us ashes fall from a blood red sky blackened rain on a broken land shattered foundations personal peace in a dying world private hell in paradise with no salvation

power breed division division breeding power

paranoia rules the land world of shadows is the law survival is the only thing that now remains

what good is your piece of prosperity when everything else is dying?

HYPOCRISY

you destroyed yourself
and I survived
that is your name
and now there's nothing left of you

Real eyes Realize
Real lies

in this land where lies are king
at peace with myself but not the world looking for a life that never was or could be I laugh when hypocrites fall

lies lies lies lies

now there's nothing left of you
